

A service honoring our congregation's commitment to the flourishing of LGBTQIA+ people and their allies in the Reformed Church in America.

A service honoring our congregation's commitment to the flourishing of LGBTQIA+ people and their allies in the Reformed Church in America.

Whether we see ourselves more in the birds or the bugs, each of us is welcome into the shade of God's community! The community that has become Room for All was started in 2005 when the Reformed Church in America (RCA) sanctioned a minister for officiating at a same-sex wedding. Led by the advocacy of the Holy Spirit, a small group of supporters looked at the LGBTQIA+ people in the church and recognized that these unique and diverse individuals were integral to the body of Christ and beloved of God!

The seed planted in hope-filled grief 19 years ago is today a flourishing organization, supporting, educating, and advocating for the welcome and full affirmation of people of all sexual orientations, gender identities, and gender expressions in the RCA and beyond. With two staff people, a volunteer board of directors, and a network of hundreds of supporters across the United States, Canada, and Japan, Room for All has continued to grow into a place that welcomes all. This diversity includes dozens of rostered congregations, hundreds of supporting ministers, engagement with each of the RCA's five institutions, and every day new friends join our branches.

We give thanks that RfA has committed to growing in the RCA and continues to preach that LGBTQIA+ people are included within the covenant. Rewarding and challenging, RfA's ministry is made possible by the support of RfA-rostered congregations like ours. For more information on opportunities to engage with Room for All and to support this ministry, visit RoomforAll.com or facebook.com/RoomforAllRCA/.

---

Learn how to make your own origami bird by scanning the QR code with your smartphone's camera!

tutorial courtesy of Caitlin Horrocks, LCAT
www.myorigamitherapy.com

Whether we see ourselves more in the birds or the bugs, each of us is welcome into the shade of God's community! The community that has become Room for All was started in 2005 when the Reformed Church in America (RCA) sanctioned a minister for officiating at a same-sex wedding. Led by the advocacy of the Holy Spirit, a small group of supporters looked at the LGBTQIA+ people in the church and recognized that these unique and diverse individuals were integral to the body of Christ and beloved of God!

The seed planted in hope-filled grief 19 years ago is today a flourishing organization, supporting, educating, and advocating for the welcome and full affirmation of people of all sexual orientations, gender identities, and gender expressions in the RCA and beyond. With two staff people, a volunteer board of directors, and a network of hundreds of supporters across the United States, Canada, and Japan, Room for All has continued to grow into a place that welcomes all. This diversity includes dozens of rostered congregations, hundreds of supporting ministers, engagement with each of the RCA's five institutions, and every day new friends join our branches.

We give thanks that RfA has committed to growing in the RCA and continues to preach that LGBTQIA+ people are included within the covenant. Rewarding and challenging, RfA's ministry is made possible by the support of RfA-rostered congregations like ours. For more information on opportunities to engage with Room for All and to support this ministry, visit RoomforAll.com or facebook.com/RoomforAllRCA/.

---

Learn how to make your own origami bird by scanning the QR code with your smartphone's camera!

tutorial courtesy of Caitlin Horrocks, LCAT
www.myorigamitherapy.com

